

Course length: all courses are 10 hours (usually 2 hours a week for 5 weeks) apart from Functional Skills which is 60 hours Partner courses: Information about other course opportunities run through partner organisations can be found on our website

Fees: Course fees can be found in the prospectus, which can be located using the prospectus button on the front page of the VLE

If you are not sure what you would like to do next and would like to speak to someone, please go to our careers advice page

HAFLS run courses

Course Title	Who is this course for	What I need to know before I start this course	Brief Description	What can I do next
Assertiveness and Communication Skills	Everyone	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. You will be prepared to share some of your thoughts and have an open mind regarding the human ability to change habits and to challenge your own way of thinking.	On this course you will develop your confidence through exploring your personal values, attitudes to change, assertiveness and sources of inspiration.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Boost your Confidence • Mindfulness • Resilience • Succeed and get that job
Becoming a Midday Supervisor	Adults who are interested in working with children in a primary school on a part time, term time basis.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. You will also need a good standard of fitness as the role is an active one. As there will be practical elements within the course you will need to dress appropriately (active clothing).	On this course you will acquire the skills to become an effective Midday Supervisor in a Primary School in sessions that are practical and hands-on.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Becoming a Classroom Helper' • Becoming a Learner Support Assistant in Secondary Schools

Becoming a Classroom Helper				Further career development could involve roles in schools such as a learning mentor, school secretary, or Special Educational Needs support worker.
	People wanting to work in a primary school as a classroom helper or teaching assistant.	A good level of conversational and written English is needed to complete this course	You will learn about how children learn, the early years and primary curriculums, behaviour management strategies and assessment. You will also learn about how phonics, reading and maths are taught in primary schools and you will have a chance to look for possible jobs and start the application process.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Functional Skills English • Functional Skills Maths And/or apply for a volunteering or paid position in a primary school.
Becoming a Learning Support Assistant in Secondary Schools and Beyond	People wanting to work in a Secondary Schools and Beyond	You will need a good level of conversational and written English to gain the most from this course.	On this course you will explore the skills needed to become an effective Learning Support Assistant in Secondary School, college and beyond. Topics will include learning styles, supporting young people and adults in their learning, policies and getting a job	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Succeed and get that job • Presentation Techniques You could also approach local colleges about gaining a level 1 or level 2 qualification in 'Supporting Teaching and Learning'. It may also be worth looking into volunteering in the FE or adult and community learning sector.

Boost Your Confidence	Adults wishing to increase their confidence	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. You will be prepared to share some of your thoughts and have an open mind regarding the human ability to change habits and to challenge your own way of thinking.	On this course you have support to identify strategies for increasing your confidence levels, recognising your own values, skills and abilities using lateral thinking to see the strengths in your weaknesses.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assertiveness and Communication Skills • Mindfulness • Resilience. • Succeed and get that job
Brush up on your English	Adults who wish to improve their English skills in preparation for further learning.	To get the most from this course you will need a good conversational level of English.	A non-qualification course which aims to help you improve your basic English skills and to gain confidence in using them in everyday life. You will be given strategies for improving your spelling, comprehension and writing.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Functional Skills English • Functional Skills Maths • ‘Access’ course at a local college
Brush up on your Maths	Adults who wish to improve their maths skills in preparation for further learning.	To get the most from this course you will need a good conversational level of English.	A non-qualification course which aims to help you improve your basic maths skills and to gain confidence in using them in everyday life. You will be given strategies for improving your calculation skills, complete practical activities involving measurement and learn ways to improve your maths.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Functional Skills English • Functional Skills Maths • ‘Access’ course at a local college
Settling in the UK (ESOL)	People who are newly arrived in the UK .	Some conversational English needed.	An introductory course to living in the UK. You will cover topics such as British culture, UK values, local traditions and political elections.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family Health for ESOL • Functional Skills qualification course.

Coding for Families	Parents and carers who want to learn how to code with SCRATCH and practice with children.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course and have access to a laptop/computer or tablet.	On this course you will explore coding programmes which are suited to creating interactive applications with multimedia content. You will have time to use your skills to create animations and a basic game. This course is suitable for children in years 4, 5 and 6. If run in a community centre time to collect children from school will be included.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Word and Excel • Get Blogging • Family ICT • or volunteer with Code club
Computing for Beginners	People who have no experience with computers and laptops.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course.	On this course you will cover the basic computer skills including security (viruses), email, the Internet, staying safe online and using social media.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Keeping Up with the Children ICT • Word and Excel • Get Blogging
Cook and Learn	Parents and children from Year 3 upwards interested in cooking and nutrition.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course and an openness to try new recipes	On this course you will discover how to look after your family's health through creating healthy meals and discussing cooking, exercise and wellbeing. Each week will involve some practical food preparation and cooking activities. The first third of the session is adults only and the children join the session for the rest to enjoy working with their parents.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Keeping Active • Life Hacks for Healthy Living You could also join a local sports related club suitable for child's age, abilities and interests.

Creative Crafts	Parents of children who wish to explore how to use a crafting as a basis to support their children’s learning across the wide range of subjects.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course	On this course you will discover how to use crafting as a basis for embedding other subjects for example maths, English, life science and crafting skills. The first half of the session is adults only and the children join the session for the rest to enjoy working with their parents on a craft project.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HAFLS intergenerational ‘Family Photography • Sewing for Wellbeing • Crochet for Wellbeing • Quilting for Wellbeing
Crochet for Wellbeing	Complete beginners and those wishing to refresh their crochet skills.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course plus and reasonable small motor skills	On this course you will discover how to use crochet tools, create basic crochet stitches and how to read a pattern read and graph. Time is allocated, so you can work on your own small project.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sewing for Wellbeing • Quilting for Wellbeing Or attend a course/workshop run by a local craft store or take an on-line course/workshop (suggestions include www.craftsy.com or www.skillshare.com).
Early Years Experiences	Parents with children who are 5 and under wanting to learn how to help their child with all areas of learning.	A good conversational level of English	On this course students will learn about how children in the Early Years Foundation Stage learn. Sessions are based around the Early Years Foundation Stage goals. Includes craft activities, rhymes, songs and stories.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Early Years family maths or English • Creative Crafts • Cook and Learn • Keeping Active

				You may also like to volunteer in a school.
Early Years Family English	Parents with children who are 5 and under wanting to learn how to help their child with early reading, phonics and writing.	A good conversational level of English	On this course students will learn how phonics, early reading and writing are taught in school and they will gain hands on ideas on how to help their child develop these skills at home. They will also learn about how outdoor learning and messy play can benefit their child's learning. Each week will include time to work with your child on a hands-on activity linked to that week's learning.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Early Years family maths • Early Years Experiences • Creative Crafts • Cook and Learn • Family Photography You may also like to volunteer in your child's school.
Early Years Family Maths	Parents with children who are 5 and under wanting to learn how to help their child with early maths skills	A good conversational level of English	On this course students will learn how to support their child with early maths skills through fun games and activities. Topics will include number, problem solving, shape, pattern and measures. Each week will include time to work with your child on a hands-on activity linked to that week's learning.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Early Years family English course • Early Years Experiences • Creative Crafts • Family Photography • Cook and Learn • Keeping Active
Family Health for ESOL	Parents and carers with English as a second language.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course	On this course you will explore how to improve your family's health with sessions including learning about healthy	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family English

Family ICT			eating, exercise and wellbeing. The first half of the session is adults only then the children join the session for the second half, to enjoy working with their parents	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family Maths • Family ICT
	Parents and carers	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course.	On this course you will work with your child to use computers and tablets to increase your knowledge of the latest apps, staying safe online, using social media so you will be more confident in using ICT as a family.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family Coding • Get Blogging • Keeping up with the Children ICT • I pads and Tablet made Easy
Family Photography	Parents who wish to support their child's learning through the media of photography using a smart phone, tablet or compact camera.	You will need a good level of conversational English to get the most out of this course plus a basic knowledge of computers and the Internet. Students will need to bring a smart phone, tablet or compact camera (compact cameras are available to borrow during the sessions).	On this course you and your child will be supported as you use a tablet, smart phone or compact camera whilst you explore a range of photographic related topics. The first half of the session is adults only and the children join the session for the rest to enjoy working with you on a themed photographic task.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Creative Crafts • Family ICT • Cook and Learn • Keeping Active
Get Blogging	Anyone who wishes to share their thoughts and experiences with others by writing their own blog.	You will need a good level of conversational English plus basic skills in using computer and the Internet. Students will need to bring their own laptop or table	On this course you will discover how to set up your own blogging account, format posts, add photographs and ways to improve your writing skills.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing for Pleasure and Profit • Writing for Wellbeing • I pads and Tablets made Easy

Get Smart, Get Fit	This course is for people of all abilities, who want to improve their fitness and wellbeing but are unsure about what type of exercise would be suitable. All ages welcome.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. This will be a heavily practical course. Learners need to wear loose fitting, active wear and be prepared to raise the heart rate.	On this course you will be able to try different types of exercise ranging from Box-Fit to Yoga and explore the health benefits of each.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Life-Hacks for Wellbeing. Or join a local fitness groups or a gym.
Inspire to Write KS2	Parents who wish to instil a love of writing in their child or support their child's learning of the English language.	What I need to know before I start this course: You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course	On this course you will be supported by a published author to develop your confidence in helping your child's literacy skills by exploring the world of short story and poetry writing. The first half of the session is adults only and the children join the session for the second half to enjoy working with you on a writing-based task.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Story Sacks • Story Telling • Creative Crafts • Cook and Learn • Writing for Wellbeing
iPads and Tablets Made Easy	People who want to understand their iPads or Android tablets, troubleshoot problems and use some of the most popular apps.	You will need a good level of conversational English and your own device to gain the most from this course	On this course you will be given help and practical advice for navigating the internet, exploring a range of apps and hints and tips for staying safe online.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Word and Excel course • Get Blogging • Computing for Beginners
Keeping Active	Parents with children in primary school.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. You will also need to wear loose fitting,	On this course you will explore healthy eating, exercise and wellbeing. The first 2 thirds of the session is adults only where we explore the topics and do a different workout each week and the children join	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Get Fit, Get Smart • Cook & Learn.

Keeping up with the Children ICT		active wear and prepare to raise your heart rate	the session for the rest to enjoy an adapted version of a fitness workout with their parents.
	Parents and carers	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course.	On this course you will discover how to use different features of your device and keep up with technology. Subjects covered include: e-Safety, social media, staying safe online, apps and knowing your device.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Word and Excel • Ipads and Tablets made Easy • Family ICT • Get Blogging
Keeping up with your child – English	Parents and carers of children 3-11 years	A good conversational level of English	Develop skills and confidence in helping your child with English and get a better understanding of how it is currently taught in primary school. The course will include ideas and activities for how to support your child with reading, writing, phonics, speaking and listening. Each session will include practical fun learning which you can complete at home with your child.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Early Years family maths course • Functional Skills course. You may also like to volunteer in your child’s school.
Keeping up with your child – Maths	Parents and carers of children 3-11 years	A good conversational level of English	Develop skills and confidence in helping your child with maths and get a better understanding of how it is currently taught in primary school. The course will include ideas and activities for how to support your child with a range of maths topics such as; addition, subtraction, fractions, shape, measures. Each session will include practical fun learning which	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Keeping up with your child – English • Functional Skills You may also like to volunteer in your child’s school.

Introduction to working in Health and Social Care/Customer Services/Film and Television Industry			you can complete at home with your child.
	Anyone interested in working in any of the three specific sectors	A good conversational and written level of English	This suite of courses will provide learners with a broad introduction to each individual industry, equipping them with underpinning knowledge and skills specific to the sector alongside a range of transferable employability skills. These courses are designed to support progression to further learning and ultimately lead to work in the individual sector.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Succeed and get that job • Functional Skills English/Maths • Assertiveness and Communication Skills • Presentation Techniques
	Anyone who would like to learn how to effectively search and apply for jobs	A good conversational and written level of English	This course will teach learners how to produce an effective CV and write winning personal statements. It will also show how to meet the requirements of applications and help develop valuable techniques for a successful interview performance.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Functional skills courses in English and Maths • Functional Skills English/Maths • Assertiveness and Communication Skills • Presentation Techniques • Word and Excel
Presentation Techniques	Anyone wanting to improve their public speaking	A good conversational and written level of English	On this course you will boost the quality of your professional or social presentations by looking at ways to engage your audience, use speech	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Succeed and get that job • Functional Skills English/Maths

Word and Excel			structure, intonation and good body language.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assertiveness and Communication Skills • Word and Excel
	Anyone wanting to further their ICT skills with a focus on Word and Excel	A good conversational and written level of English. On some occasions this course requires you to bring your own device.	This is an intermediate level course which will give you confidence in using these programs. Topics include formatting word documents, creating posters and using formulae in Excel.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Succeed and get that job • Functional Skills English/Maths • Assertiveness and Communication Skills • Presentation Techniques
	Anyone who has a desire to write fiction in any of its forms	You will need a good level of conversational English and a basic knowledge of written English to get the most out of this course	On this course you will explore a different technique each week that will help inspire you to write a piece of creative writing, fiction or poetry. Time will be allocated to writing your own piece of work during each session.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing for Pleasure or Profit • Get Blogging • Scrapbooking Made Simple Or attend a part-time writing course at a local college
Sewing - Intermediate	Intermediate sewers and those wishing to refresh their sewing skills.	You will need to know how to operate your machine including threading up, loading the bobbin and changing machine feet. You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the	On this practical course aimed at intermediate sewers, bring along your machine and learn or relearn a variety of sewing skills including sewing a variety of different seams, fitting a zip, creating a button hole etc. You will create different	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Quilting – beginner sewing • Crochet for Wellbeing

	NB: your own sewing machine must be in full working order, less than 2 years old or serviced annually.	most out of this course. Ideally you should bring your own fully functioning sewing machine. Although we have two sewing machines available at our Stevenage, Waltham Cross and Borehamwood hubs, which students can borrow - they may need to share. HAFLS will provide all other tools and materials.	projects each week in a fun and friendly environment.	or attend a part-time sewing course at a local college
Quilting – beginner sewing	complete beginners and novice sewers who wish to refresh old skills NB: your own sewing machine must be in full working order, less than 2 years old or serviced annually.	No prior sewing knowledge is required. You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most out of this course. Ideally you should bring your own fully functioning sewing machine. Although we have two sewing machines available at our Stevenage, Waltham Cross and Borehamwood hubs, which students can borrow - they may need to share. HAFLS will provide all other tools and materials.	On this practical course aimed at beginners, bring your machine along and learn how to set it up correctly, explore the different dials and discover what the different feet do. Each week you will create a different simple quilting block in a fun and friendly environment using a straight stitch. If time permits, you will turn these blocks into a simple project.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sewing - Intermediate • Crochet for Wellbeing • Scrapbooking Made Simple
Jewellery Making for Wellbeing	Complete beginners and those wishing to refresh	You will need a good level of conversational English to get the	This course is perfect for beginners or those wishing to start a new hobby, improve their wellbeing and meeting like-	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mosaic Stained Glass

	their jewellery making skills.	most out of this course and have reasonable small motor skills	minded people. You will learn how to use basic jewellery making tools and materials and you'll complete your own weekly themed project.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Photography • Sewing for Wellbeing Or attend a course/workshop run by a local craft store or take an on-line course/workshop (suggestions include www.craftsy.com or www.skillshare.com).
Life Hacks for Healthy Living	All who have an interest in nurturing their physical, mental and social wellbeing. All ages welcome.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. You will also be required to take part in physical activity each week so loose fitting, active wear will be beneficial.	On this course you will explore the government's '5 Ways to Wellbeing' initiative, with a focus on being active and nutrition.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mindfulness • Wellbeing for Life Alternately join a local gym/sports club or explore fitness further by attending a fitness related course at a local college or Adult Education class.
Family Mindfulness	Parents with children who are looking for a way to make their life calmer and to gain perspective on their thoughts, anxiety or stress levels in everyday family life. NB: This is	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. Ideally you will come with an open mind and a willingness to trust your own brain	On this course you have support to identify strategies for increasing your ability to cope with life's stresses and strains, recognising your own patterns of thinking and behaving, learning gratitude for the skills and abilities you have and learning the science behind mindfulness. Parents will then be given the chance to	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Confidence Boosting • Assertiveness • Life Hacks for Healthy Living • Wellbeing for Life • Resilience not therapy, it is a helpful tool to learn to help yourself and your family. It is also not tied to any religion.		put their learning into practice with their children, thus creating potentially calmer environments at home.	Alternatively, you may like to attend a local exercise class e.g. yoga or nurture a hobby you can use as a way to destress yourself.

Mindfulness	Anyone who is looking for a way to make their life calmer and to gain perspective on their thoughts, anxiety or stress levels in everyday life. NB: This is not therapy, it is a helpful tool to learn to help yourself. It is also not tied to any religion.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. Ideally you will come with an open mind and a willingness to trust your own brain	On this course you will explore the strategies for increasing your ability to cope with life's stresses and strains, recognising your own patterns of thinking and behaving, learning gratitude for the skills and abilities you have and learning the science behind mindfulness.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Confidence Boosting • Assertiveness • Life Hacks for Healthy Living • Wellbeing for Life • Resilience
Photography for Wellbeing	Complete beginners who wish to explore photography and take better photographs using their smart phone, tablet or compact camera.	You will need a good level of conversational English to get the most out of this course plus a basic knowledge of computers and the Internet. Students will need to bring a smart phone, tablet or compact camera (compact cameras are available to borrow during the sessions).	On this course you will be supported as you use a tablet, smart phone or compact camera whilst you explore a range of topics to help you improve your photography.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scrapbooking Made Simple • Mosaic Stained Glass • Jewellery Making for Wellbeing • Sewing for Wellbeing Or attend a part-time writing course at a local college, join a local photography group (http://sinwp.com/camera_clubs/Hertfordshire.htm) or study

				online (try YouTube or www.Udemy.com)
Scrapbooking made simple	Those wishing to learn new skills and meet new people	You will need a good level of conversational English to get the most out of this course.	On this course you will learn how to create a beautiful keepsake scrapbook of memories using a wide range of paper crafting techniques.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing for Wellbeing • Mosaic Stained Glass • Jewellery Making for Wellbeing You may also like to volunteer as an assistant at our classes
Story Sacks	Parents of children in reception or Year one who wish to explore how to use a picture book as a basis to support their children’s learning across a wide range of subjects.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course.	On this course you will discover how to use a picture book as a basis for embedding other subjects for example maths, English, life science and crafting skills. The first half of the session is adults only and the children join the session for the rest to enjoy working with their parents on a craft project.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family Photography • Story Telling • Creative Crafts
Story Telling	Parents of children in reception and year 1, who wish to explore how to use story telling as a basis to support their children’s learning across the curriculum.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course	On this course you will discover techniques to support your child’s reading skills and explore different ways of telling and reading stories to make them fun and interesting. The first half of the session is adults only and the children	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Creative Crafts • Story Sacks • Cook and Learn • Family Photography • Keeping Active join the session for the rest to enjoy working with you on a craft project

Wellbeing for Life	Anyone who wishes to make a positive improvement by addressing the balance of their work v social life.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most from this course. You will also need to wear loose fitting active wear and trainers for the exercise elements	On this course you will look at different ways to look after your wellbeing, which will enable you to live a more fulfilled life. Some sessions will include gentle exercise and craft-based projects.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Get Fit, Get Smart • Cook & Learn • Keeping Active • Mindfulness
Writing for Pleasure and Profit	Anyone with a desire to write fiction/non-fiction and become published or simply write for the pleasure of writing.	You will need a good level of conversational English to gain the most out of this course and a basic knowledge of written English	On this course you will explore how to get your work published (fiction and non-fiction) and how you can self-publish. Time will be allocated to writing during each session.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing for Wellbeing • Photography for Wellbeing Attend a part-time writing course at a local college, or join a local writing group
Functional Skills English Entry level 1 – Level 2	Adults who want to gain a recognised qualification in English. Level 2 is often required to go on to further education or for many jobs.	A good conversational level of English. An assessment will be needed prior to the course starting to ascertain the current learner level.	On this course you will look at three elements of English speaking and listening, reading and writing. Assessments/exams will be taken in each element. Learners will be assessed before they start the course and placed in a suitable level. We teach from Entry 1 – Level 2.	Courses such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Functional Skills Courses at higher levels • GCSE English Or go on to further or higher education or to get a job.
Functional Skills Maths	Adults who want to gain a recognised	To embark on the functional skills maths journey, you will need the	On this course you will refresh and upgrade your maths skills. The course	Courses such as:

Entry level 1 – Level 2	qualification in Maths. Level 2 is often required to go on to further education or for many jobs.	following things regardless of what level you complete: At entry Level you will need to be willing to tackle the four key areas of maths: Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication and Division. This will be taught at a gentle pace to ensure you can grasp these concepts easily. Once your confidence is built you will explore further areas of maths in practical situations. Studying Level 1 and 2 means that you have already grasped the fundamentals at entry level. You will further build on these topics in practical contexts, whilst learning some topic areas from the GCSE syllabus. Level 1 and 2 allows the learner to study the practical everyday elements of maths that you would use daily which could be applied in ‘real life situations’ including most general job roles.	covers three distinct skills areas: representing, analysing and interpreting. Learners will be assessed before they start the course and placed at a suitable level. You can study Functional Skills maths from Entry 1 – Level 2. Assessments/exams will be taken at the end of the course.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Functional Skills Courses at higher levels • GCSE Maths • Or go on to further or higher education or get a job.
---------------------------------------	--	---	--	---